

Animal Crossing: New Horizons Guide: The Ultimate Guide to Paradise Living

Welcome to the ultimate guide to Animal Crossing: New Horizons, the latest installment in the beloved life simulation game series. In this guide, you'll find everything you need to know to create your own island paradise, from building your home and decorating your island to making friends with the adorable animal villagers. Whether you're a seasoned Animal Crossing veteran or a newcomer to the series, this guide will help you make the most of your time on your deserted island.

Building Your Home

One of the first things you'll need to do in Animal Crossing: New Horizons is to build your home. Your home will be your base of operations on the island, and you can customize it to your liking with a variety of furniture, wallpaper, and flooring options. To build your home, you'll need to collect materials such as wood and stone. You can gather these materials by chopping down trees and breaking rocks.

Once you have enough materials, you can talk to Tom Nook, the resident raccoon who runs the island's store, to start building your home. Tom Nook will give you a choice of three different house designs, and you can choose the one that you like the most. Once you've chosen a design, Tom Nook will start building your home, and it will be completed the next day.

Decorating Your Island

Once you have a home, you can start decorating your island to make it your own. There are a variety of ways to decorate your island, such as planting flowers, placing furniture, and creating paths. You can also customize the terrain of your island by digging holes, creating cliffs, and building rivers.

To decorate your island, you'll need to collect furniture and other items. You can find furniture and other items by talking to villagers, buying them from Tom Nook's store, or finding them hidden around the island. Once you have some furniture and other items, you can start placing them around your island to create your own unique look.

Making Friends with Villagers

One of the best things about Animal Crossing: New Horizons is the cast of adorable animal villagers. Villagers are the residents of your island, and they can offer you a variety of services, such as selling you items, giving you gifts, and helping you with tasks around the island.

To make friends with villagers, you'll need to talk to them and do favors for them. When you talk to villagers, they will often ask you for help with something, such as finding a lost item or delivering a letter. If you help villagers with their requests, they will become more friendly towards you and will eventually offer to move to your island.

Animal Crossing: New Horizons is a delightful life simulation game that offers endless possibilities for creativity and exploration. With this guide, you'll have everything you need to create your own island paradise and make friends with the adorable animal villagers. So what are you waiting for? Start playing Animal Crossing: New Horizons today!
