The Mayflower's Voyage

The Mayflower, a small merchant ship, set sail from Plymouth, England, on September 6, 1620. On board were 102 passengers, including men, women, and children, who sought religious freedom and a new life in the Americas. The voyage was long and arduous, lasting over two months. The ship was battered by storms, and several passengers died during the crossing.

On November 9, 1620, the Mayflower finally reached the shores of Cape Cod. The Pilgrims decided to establish their settlement at Plymouth Plantation, located on the present-day coast of Massachusetts. They spent the winter in makeshift shelters, suffering from cold, hunger, and disease. However, they persevered, and by the following spring, they had built a permanent settlement.
